AI Summary:

On June 30, 2025, at approximately 07:03 PM EDT, an incident occurred at 456 Shopping Ave, Mall, involving TSS Jaclyn and APTL Cameron. The two asset protection team members attempted to stop a subject who had concealed baby clothing in a book bag. During the intervention, the subject became aggressive and shoved Cameron into the exit doors before fleeing on foot to a nearby business. Law enforcement was contacted but was unable to locate the suspect. The likely cause of this incident was an attempted theft that escalated into physical aggression. It is recommended that store leadership review and potentially enhance security protocols and employee training to better handle similar situations in the future.
