AI Summary:

On July 2, 2025, at approximately 8:15 PM, an incident of theft occurred at the self-checkout area of the store located at 456 Shopping Ave, Mall. The subject, who selected girls' toddler clothing and women's tank tops, was observed scanning multiple items simultaneously. During this process, the subject failed to scan two girls' toddler pants and two tops. The individual completed the transaction by paying only for three women's tops and exited the store at 8:20 PM without further incident. The likely cause of this incident appears to be intentional theft through manipulation of the self-checkout process. It is recommended that store leadership consider enhancing monitoring measures at self-checkout stations and provide additional training to staff to identify and prevent similar incidents.
